Getting Here

There are a range of bus routes serving Cumbernauld town centre with numerous bus stops along Central Way that effectively form the town's bus depot. Services link Cumbernauld to Glasgow, Stirling, Falkirk, Dundee and the surrounding towns and villages.

Cumbernauld is highly accessible from Scotland's motorway network due to its proximity to the M80 (Junction 6) which links directly with the M8, M73 and M9 motorways and runs from Glasgow in the west to Stirling in the north. The M73 runs perpendicular to the M80 running south towards the M8 which connects Edinburgh to Glasgow.

The centre boasts over 1000 parking spaces across three car parks.

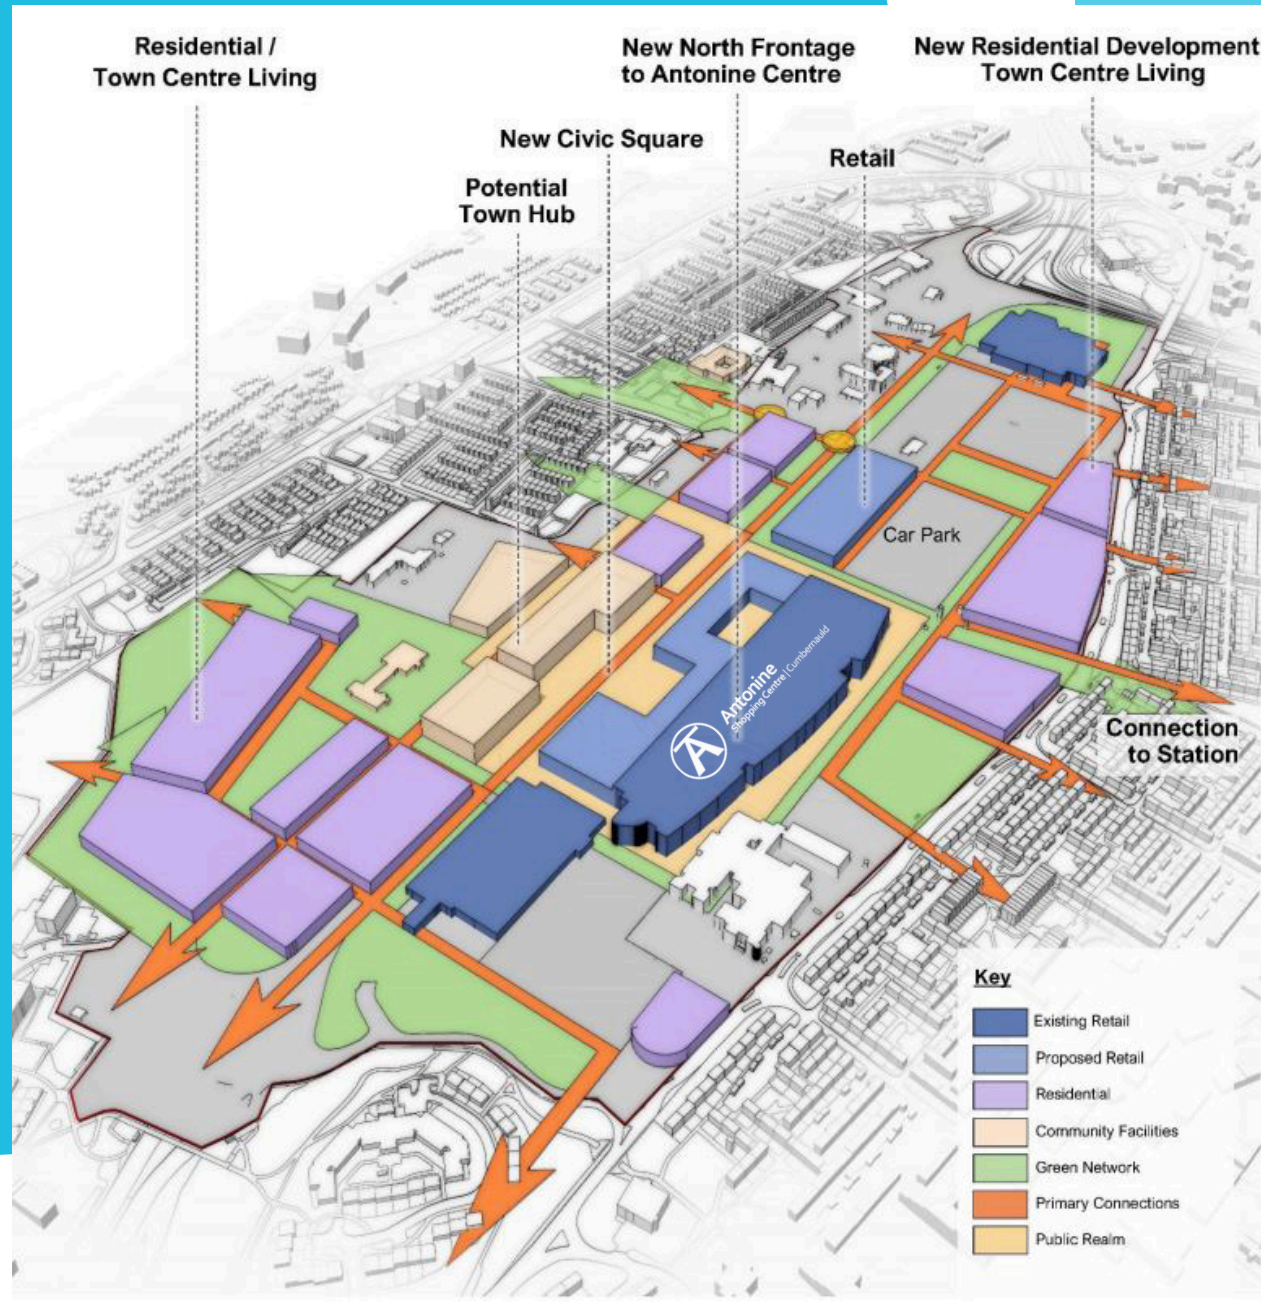

Cumbernauld is well served by two separate rail stations within 2 miles of the town centre. Cumbernauld and Greenfaulds stations are located to the south of the town centre and operate on the Cumbernauld line with direct services to Glasgow in circa 12 minutes, Falkirk in 16 minutes and Motherwell in 18 minutes. Services also run from Glasgow in 14 minutes and Edinburgh in 37 minutes.

The future of Cumbernauld

Adjoining “The Centre” is under the ownership of North Lanarkshire Council. Over the course of the next ten years, The Centre will be demolished and the area will be redeveloped into a town centre hub for the residents of Cumbernauld. This is a multi-million pound scheme which will focus the main retail offering in the town on the Antonine Centre. The first stage of demolition is scheduled to take place within the next 3-5 years.
